

There is no better expression of place than a well-prepared meal

Wine lovers and small farmers agree with the poets on this one: place is specific, essential, and to be cherished. For our kitchen, we source ingredients from more than 65 local purveyors, neighbors we know and trust for both their quality products and for how their sustainable practices nourish and enrich our little corner of the world.

Our wine selection is no different

It is with great pride that we support viticulturists with a deep respect for the health of the place that nourishes their vines. Some have chosen to pursue formal certification as organic or biodynamic; all practice their craft in a way that resonates with our own commitment to local, seasonal, and sustainable, ensuring healthy soil, water, and vines for future generations.

There's so much to discover

No doubt, you will see many unfamiliar names here. Emphasizing small, sustainable producers means uncovering hidden gems. We strive to maintain a list that is broad and deep, yet accessible. We showcase the spectrum of grape varietals, from the familiar to the uncommon, while always focusing on wines that play well with a variety of food. Our chefs strive to produce flavorful, innovative cuisine; our wines enhance their efforts.

Wine is an integral part of the dining experience

Enjoyment! It is our aim is to create the best dining experience for you — and that is measured wholly by your enjoyment. Please consider us your resource, your champions, and your facilitators. Trust us to listen, to be responsive, and to guide you to a wine you'll love. We'd love to do everything we can to make this meal a transcendent experience.

All vintages and availability are subject to change.

Plēb Urban Winery

May is North Carolina Wine Month and we are so excited to partner with Plēb Urban Winery!

Plēb uses an Old World approach to produce organic, natural and minimal intervention craft wine using locally sourced grapes. We will be serving the following wines from Plēb to celebrate North Carolina's wine cultivation that spans all the way back to the 1580s, when the first colonists cultivated the "mother vine" in Manteo, NC. It survives to this day and is the oldest known producing grape vine in the country.

Posana is featuring the following wines this month.

Piquette, 2021 15 / 60

A portion of proceeds from this wine goes to French Broad Riverkeeper, which works to preserve our local rivers.

fresh, low-alcohol wine with notes of leather and berry

Seyval Blanc Tête, 2018 75

A French hybrid grape, Seyval Blanc.

bright and vibrant with citrus and minerality. Muscadet-like acidity

True Player Red Blend, 2021 65

Aged in a concrete egg on shagbark hickory bark.

savory, crunchy, refreshing, best with a chill
